SONG OF THE SUMMER BIRDS
(composed by RUBINSTEIN.)

To dwell in leafy bower
Where snowy blossoms shower,
To nestle soft in grassy nook,
O happy lot of summer's tiny songsters
O happy days!

Come balmy zephyrs flying,
Come fragrant odours sighing.
And murmured song from crystal brook,
Gay butterflies come forth with us to wanton.
O happy days.

Our downy nests we build us,
Where swaying branches shield us.
Our only roof the leafy dome.

The list'ning breeze is hushed
To hear our carols uprising,
Sung to the welcome dawn.

And when our day is ended
By heavenly care attended
We fly unto a brighter home.
O happy lot of summer's tiny songsters !

From "THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE."
By kind permission of R. D'Oyly Carte, Esq.

When a felon's not engaged in his employment
Or maturing his felonious little plans
His capacity for innocent enjoyment
Is just as great as any honest man's.
Our feelings we with difficulty smother
When constabulary duty's to be done.

Ah, take one consideration with another
A policeman's lot is not a happy one.
When constabulary duty's to be done,
The policeman's lot is not a happy one.

When the enterprising burglar's not a-burgling,
When the cut-throat isn't occupied in crime,
He loves to hear the little brook a-gurgling
And listen to the merry village chime.
When the coster's finished jumping on his mother
He loves to lie a-basking in the sun,

Ah, take one consideration with another, etc., etc.

From "THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE."
By kind permission of R. D'Oyly Carte, Esq.

With cat-like tread,
Upon our prey we steal ;
In silence dread
Our cautious way we feel !
No sound at all,
We never speak a word ;
A fly's footfall
Would be distinctly heard,
So stealthily the Pirate creeps,
While all the household soundly sleeps.

Come, friends, who plough the sea,
Truce to navigation,
Take another station,
Let's vary pi-ra-cee
With a little bur-gla-ree !

Here's your crowbar, and your centre bit,
Your life preserver ; you may want to hit !
Your silent matches, your dark lantern seize !
Take your file, and your skeletal keys !
Ta-ran-ta-ra !

CRADLE SONG.

(Schubert)

Hush, my baby,
Hush, my little darling,
Mother's near thee,
Rocks her babe to sleep,
May thy slumber bring sweet visions :
Hush, my baby, angels near thee keep.

Hush my baby,
May no ill come near thee,
Close thine eyelids,
Rest on mother's arm,
All thy longing she will grant thee,
Mother watches, shelters thee from harm.

She would show thee nought but grace and beauty,
Flowers and sunshine,
Laughter, joy, and love ;
Rest thee, sweet one,
Dream of pleasures,
Fear no danger, rest thee gentle dove.

PAST THREE O'CLOCK.

Born is a Baby
Gentle as may be,
Son of th' eternal
Father supernal.

Past three o'clock
And a cold frosty morning,
Past three o'clock,
Good morrow masters all.

Seraph quire singeth
Angel bell ringeth,
Hark how they rime it,
Time it and chime it.

Mid-earth rejoices
Hearing such voices
Ne'er tofore so well
Carolling "Nowell."

Light out of starland
Leadeth from far land
Princes to meet him,
Worship and greet him.

HYMN. (Words by W. G. Cretney.)

Lo, the sound of youthful voices
Cleaves the calm and solemn night,
Changing gloom and cold and darkness
Into warmth and cheerful light :
"Joy and gladness
Be with you this Christmas time !"

Down the ages comes the message,
Who can then forbear to sing ?
Woods and hills are silent list'ning,
Through the streets the echoes ring :
"Joyful tidings !
Peace on earth, goodwill to men."

Earthly cares and human sadness
This sweet harmony dispels ;
As the bells ring out at Christmas
All mankind their anthem swells
"Bells of gladness,
Ring your message o'er the world !"
